Poem

bylizardchick

HE who is my Master

The One who keeps me safe

HE who is my Master

The One who keeps me from harm

HE who is my Master

The One that shows me my place

HE who is my Master

HE who is my Master

Strikes my flesh with care

HE who is my Master

Sees my soul left bare

HE who is my Master

Hears my breath start to race

He who is my Master

HE who is my Master

The One who wipes the tear

HE who is my Master

The One who keeps my fears

HE who is my Master

The One who hold my heart

HE who is my Master

HE who is my Master

The One I long to kneel

HE who is my Master

The One I long to feel

HE who is my Master

The One I have dreamed about

HE who is my Master

Diaper Domination

By Craig ( <http://www.diapersrfun.com> )

Diaper domination makes use of some equipment that may not be found in routine training situations. The most important aspect of diaper bondage is that the sub must be rendered helpless to adjust, change or remove its diapers. The security devices discussed earlier are effective but are not always appropriate. The most common long-term bondage appliances are rigid mittens, which limit the use of the hands and restrictive clothing. Medical restraints are available without question from medical supply stores or you may fabricate them. Any design that keeps the hand from being able to grasp and prevents use of the fingers which may be fastened securely is acceptable. Without the use of its hands or fingers, the sub is helpless to affect its diapered condition.

The sub may be left alone in the house suitably restrained and able to perform only limited functions. It may, for instance, be able to answer the phone but dialing out is impossible. Subs in this condition will certainly attempt masturbation in the form of rubbing themselves through their diapers. However, the sensations produced, if correctly diapered in this manner, merely remind the sub of its diapered condition. The sub may also be told that evidence of masturbation (most obvious in the male) will be punished severely. A useful tell-tale sign of masturbation, if the sub is in disposable diapers, is the condition of the paper wadding which makes up the diaper core in the area of the genitals. This is a sure sign that masturbation has at least been attempted. The use of only mittens to restrain can produce unexpected and yet pleasing results, since the sub feels quite free but yet is prevented from the one thing it wants most, to be out of its diapers or to climax.

Restrictive clothing is used most often when the sub is being put down for the night. A straight jacket is the most effective garment to use, but anything which securely encloses the diapered area and or restricts the wearer's limbs is good. One-piece sleepers are very effective here, since the sense of confinement adds to the effects of having been forced to wear and use diapers. The footed sleepers are a favorite of age players, visit www.kozyko.mfy.com for quality examples. If rigid mittens have not been incorporated into the garment, they may be added to prevent the sub from removing the garment during the night. Sleepers should, if possible, cover the feet, be cut generously in the crotch and fasten at the back of the neck. The ability to lock the main zipper is handy but not necessary if mittens and a simple tie are used.

One of the primary advantages of diaper domination and bondage is that a "scene" may be protracted over several days or weeks without undue wear on either the Mistress or the sub.

Since, aside from being kept in diapers, the sub is able to function normally, there is no need to end a scene in order to provide for nourishment or rest. Therefore, scenes can be integrated into normal life, such as the sub being made to attend cocktail parties, sporting events, theatre, and social evenings while in diapers. Each of these situations presents the sub with a different set of potential opportunities for discovery. Longer outings will, of course, require a change of diapers and the diaper bag being present is often a major embarrassment in itself. Regular and frequent physical checks of the diapers should be made with the aim to humiliate and enforce in the mind of the wearer your control over his or her body. Don't forget the senses like hearing. Ask questions in the third-person like, "How are your diapers?" "Do you need changing?" "Are your plastic panties uncomfortable?" "Do you need your diapers checked?" Follow these with lots of pats on the butt, fussing and adjusting or pulling on the garments.

Diaper domination is most effective when the sub is kept sexually aroused but denied orgasms. Oral servicing of you, the Top, will see to your needs but I can not stress highly enough that your sub should be kept sexually frustrated. The unusual sensations on and around the genitals will help, as will often the enforced humiliation. I would strongly advise that you be prepared to stimulate your sub, when rewards are due, just to the point of orgasm as this will reinforce the pleasure/pain aspects of true diaper domination. If you are concerned that your sub is achieving orgasm I would suggest an increase in the padding used and/or the use of a chastity device. For female subs when used under a diaper even a relatively simple belt will prove very frustrating to the wearer and thus very effective. For a male sub I would recommend a CBT device. The wise Top will show compassion when it is called for, but will never allow it to be the occasion for relaxing the routine of diaper discipline or for moderating the punishments that the recipients constantly attract.

Once you start, you must be determined in your task and not ease off. Your sub will most certainly try to challenge you and try and avoid the discipline. This is when harsh and strict punishment needs to be applied and maybe a little 'Petticoat Discipline', which works well for both sexes. If Diaper Domination is done correctly the final result will be a charming, decorative, demure, and compliant sub who will be a credit to you.

By nightmare

(Editor's note: This is a work of fiction, any resemblance to actual persons living or dead is entirely coincidental.)

"That does pose a problem." Stephan lifted his hand, lightly brushing Aidan's cheek. "Perhaps we could go shopping? There does seem to be a need, and I'm well known in the shops, so you will receive the proper attention. Aunt Cece mentioned that you wished to purchase some things and simply haven't had the time."

"Yeah, that'd be okay, I guess." After all, if he decided to try to get a job, he'd need something nice, wouldn't he? And it was obvious Stephan had taste, which Aidan admitted, especially to himself, that he didn't. He refused to dwell on the fact that Cece had clearly discussed him with Stephan.

"Yes."

"Excuse me?"

"I abhor common words such as yeah. 'Yes' is the polite way to answer."

"Oh, then yes, that would be nice." He'd never met anyone quite so insistent on being proper.

Stephan smiled, and Aidan felt an answering bloom on his face. "Tomorrow, then?"

"Yes. What time?"

"After ten." Stephan stepped away, turning just before leaving the room. "Until then, Aidan."

Aidan just smiled, and watched him leave the room. He blinked as he heard his front door open and close, and in a daze wandered into the foyer to lock the door. Had he really just made a date? He grinned, and, feeling like a foolish teenager, he went to the kitchen to fix something to eat.

By nine the next morning, he'd already been up for hours, going through his clothing, trying to find something that wasn't embarrassing. He'd always been a casual dresser, though, so he had jeans, most with a hole somewhere, and shorts, but no slacks, and nothing fancier than a polo shirt. Shrugging, he pulled on a very tight pair of jeans that hugged his body and showed his ass off, and a thin t-shirt. If he couldn't look polished, at least he could look hot.

By ten, he was anxious, having already berated himself for getting so excited, and he paced in his living room, waiting for the knock on his door. It was almost eleven before that knock came; he'd almost convinced himself that Stephan wasn't coming. He jumped up, wiping his hands on his jeans, and opened his door, smiling.

Stephan returned his smile and stepped back, allowing Aidan to lock his door and pocket his keys. The question of who would drive was settled as Stephan gripped his elbow tightly and led him to his car, opening the passenger door for him. Aidan slipped inside, looking around with interest at the posh vehicle.

He smiled nervously when Stephan climbed in and smoothly pulled out of the drive, turning onto the tree-shaded lane.

"How long have you lived here?"

Aidan looked over, meeting Stephan's gaze. "Not long. I moved up here when my parents died, until then, I was living in Atlanta."

"Did you like it?"

"The city?" Aidan shrugged. "It was all right, I guess. I like this much better."

"What are your plans?"

"What is this, twenty questions?" Aidan's smile died as the smile left Stephan's face, leaving his expression impassive. "Shit, I'm sorry. I didn't mean anything by it."

"I would prefer if you did not use profanity near me." Stephan's voice was chilly. (To be continued in November 2006)

SOUTHWEST LEATHER CONFERENCE

"Primal Within"

January 19 -21, 2007 in Phoenix, AZ

<http://www.southwestleather.org>

Now in its fifth year, Southwest Leather Conference has become known as "The Leather Event of Heart and Spirit." The conference emphasizes the interpersonal and spiritual dynamics of D/s relationships and SM practices and provides attendees with opportunities for a profoundly deep experience of BDSM.

SWLC also provides a vehicle for regional leather clubs, organizations and individuals to gather and celebrate the leather tribe of which we are all a part. The event draws leather folk of all sexual orientations and gender identities; of all adult ages, nationalities and religious/spiritual affiliations from all over North America and Canada as well. Singles, couples, triads, and leather families are all welcome!

"Primal Within", the theme for SWLC 2007, honors our modern primitive tribe of leatherfolk, our leather heritage, and the spirits of our ancestors.

ESPIRI: THE ESSENCE OF PRIMAL PLAY

Join us for a provocative evening of sensuality and spirituality with five extraordinary primal scene partners, who will simultaneously present and engage in their favorite SM rituals. Attendees may bear witness to the magic taking place in each... and/or indulge their desire to partake in any of the NON-SM "primitive service stations" around the room, hosted by some of the community's finest body, mind and spirit practitioners. Areas may include massage, Reiki, sacred dance and free movement, chanting, guided meditation, and aromatherapy. And calling all puppies and ponies: we will have an area just for you! For those wanting to learn more about Espiri's primal play scenes, the featured scene partners will present follow-up presentations on Saturday.

DANCE OF SOULS

Take part in this powerful tradition of the Southwest Leather Conference. At this Fakir Musafar-inspired hook pull experience, attendees transform into "modern primitives" by participating as flesh dancers, spirit dancers, drummers or witness bearers. Dancers are pierced with hooks, bells or balls and take part in an ecstatic dance, tethered together or separately. This Native-American flavored ritual celebration provides a unique experience for those interested in concluding the weekend in a space of unity and transformation. Concluding Sunday after 7 PM, participants should make travel and accommodation plans accordingly.
